GOSPEL MEDITATION

“Forgiveness and reconciliation are reasons for celebration.” - Luke 15:32

In today’s First Reading, God forgives “the reproach” of the generations who grumbled against Him after the Exodus. On the threshold of the Promised Land, Israel can celebrate the Passover, the feast of God’s firstborn son, with a clean heart (see Joshua 5:10-12; Exodus 4:22; 12:12-13).

Reconciliation is also at the heart of the story Jesus tells in today’s Gospel. The story of the Prodigal Son is the story of Israel and of the human race. But it is also the story of every believer. In Baptism, we’re given a divine birthright, made “a new creation.” as Paul puts it in today’s Epistle. But when we sin we’re like the prodigal, quitting our Father’s house, squandering our inheritance in trying to live without Him.

Lost in sin, we cut ourselves off from the grace of son ship lavished upon us in Baptism. It is still possible for us to come to our senses, to make our way back to the Father, as the prodigal does.

But only God can remove the reproach and restore the divine son ship we have spurned. Only He can free us from the slavery to sin that causes us, like the prodigal, to see God not as our Father but as our master, one we serve as slaves. God wants not slaves but children. Like the father in today’s Gospel, He longs to call each of us “My Son,” to share His life with us, to tell us: “Everything I have is yours.”

The Father’s words of longing and compassion still come to His prodigal children in the Sacrament of Penance. This is part of what Paul today calls “the ministry of reconciliation” entrusted by Jesus to the Apostles and the Church, Reconciled like Israel, we take our place at the table of the Eucharist, the homecoming banquet the Father prepares for His lost children, the new Passover we celebrate this side of heaven. We taste the goodness of the Lord, as we sing in today’s Psalm, rejoicing that we who were dead are found alive again.

-Dr. Scott Hahn

“Forgiveness is the remission of sins. For it is by this that what has been lost, and was found, is saved from being lost again.”

-St. Augustine

Prayer in Preparation for the Appointment of our Eight Bishop

Loving and gracious God, bless the Diocese of Tucson with a new shepherd who will be a loving father, a wise teacher, and a holy guide, who will lead us closer to you and inspire us to be missionary disciples intent on healing a broken and divided world.

May the Holy Spirit guide our Holy Father to send us a good shepherd who truly cares for each of us and is attentive to the needs of all in our community.

Lord in your love for us; give us a shepherd who will lead us in being Christ's heart of mercy, voice of hope and hands of justice in our day and in our time.

Throughout our 120 years, Lord you have abundantly cared for our Diocese with bishops who have nurtured and strengthened us in the faith

May our eighth bishop continue the work of his predecessors and model for us what it means to be one who serves.

We ask this through Jesus Christ, your Son and our Lord, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever.
Amen
