GOSPEL MEDITATION

“Let the one among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her”

-John 8:7

“The scribes and the Pharisees brought a woman who had been caught in adultery and made her stand in the middle” (John 8:3). Why do they make her stand in the middle? Why not expose her on the periphery? The reason is something that affects us practically every day.

The center is what stabilizes a community's identity. We humans tend to center ourselves around an accused and condemned victim — though we rarely admit it. This renews our fragile communities and our power as those who weaponize the accusation. This is effective because it is often a victim who represents something truly dangerous for the group. In this case, adultery stands for the breakdown of a community and those within it, because it forces questions like: who is my father? Whose child is this? Is this child one of us, or that of an outsider? The accusers place the adulteress in the center because their community, like most, is built around turning an enemy into a victim.

Once you understand this, you'll see it almost anywhere humans group together (families, politics, workplaces, sports, schools, etc.). The good news is Jesus exposes this dynamic by deftly pointing out the sin-infected hearts of everyone besides the woman. They all leave, symbolizing the breakdown of the old order, and she is “left alone before him.” A new community has begun, structured around the merciful love of Christ. What is in your center? What is in the center of our parish and family communities? Strive to center on Christ's forgiveness, and we experience the new, lasting community we call the Church.

-Father John Muir

Be ashamed when you sin, don't be ashamed when you repent - Sin is the wound, repentance is the medicine.
Sin is followed by shame;
repentance is followed by boldness Satan has overturned this order and given boldness to sin and shame to repentance.

Message from Our Pope Francis,

“Living Holy Week following Jesus means learning how to come out of ourselves to reach out to others, to go to the outskirts of existence, to be the first to move towards our brothers and sisters, especially those who are forgotten, those who are most in need of understanding, consolation and help. There is so much need to bring the living presence of Jesus, merciful and full of love.”

Lent Prayer For Renewal

Precious Lord,
Thank you for your guidance and protection Thank you for giving me the strength to go through this Lenten season I pray that by the end of this lent period, I will be made anew in you Help me not to be the same person I was before the season began Renew my mind and my heart, Lord, teach me your ways
Help me understand your word
My soul yearns for you, dear Lord, fill me with your spirit and draw me closer to you Strengthen me when I'm weak, fill me when I feel empty Renew my body and grant me the grace to do everything I do

Forgiveness Prayer For Lent

Father Lord in heaven,
During this period, I lay my soul bare to you.
I present all my imperfections at your feet.
I admit I am a sinner. I have cheated my neighbor and taken his cloth. I have deceived those I love in my own selfish interest. I have sinned against my body and treated your temple with filth. I am not worthy to look for your grace or favor.
Today, I ask that you cleanse me of my filth.
Take my sins away and forgive me. Purge me of my jealousy, anger, unfaithfulness, greed, and deceit.
Take me back into your arms. Forgive my wrongdoings. Make me worthy again. For each day during this period let me wake up with remorse and let me offer myself clean to you in prayer and supplication
