Gospel Reflection

By God's goodness and compassion, the doors of His kingdom have been opened to all who have faith, Jew or Gentile. That's the good news Paul and Barnabas proclaim in today's First Reading. With the coming of the Church, the New Jerusalem John sees in today Second Reading God is making "all things new."

In His Church, the "old order" of death is passing away, and God is making His dwelling with the human race for all time, so that all peoples "will be his people and God himself will always be with them." In this the promises made through His prophets are accomplished (see Ezekiel 37:27; Isaiah 25:8; 35:10).

The Church is "the kingdom for all ages" that we sing of in today's Psalm. That's why we see the Apostles, under the guidance of the Spirit, ordaining "presbyters," or priests (see 1 Timothy 4:14; Titus 1:5). Anointed priests and bishops will be the Apostles' successors, ensuring that the Church's "dominion endures through all generations" (see Philippians 1:1; note that the NABRE translates episkopos, the Greek word for bishops, as "overseers"). Until the end of time, the Church will declare to the world God's mighty deeds, blessing His holy name and giving Him thanks, singing of the glories of His kingdom.

In His Church, we know ourselves as His "faithful ones," as those Jesus calls "my children" in today's Gospel. We live by the new law, the "new commandment" that He gave in His final hours. The love He commands of us is no human love but a supernatural love. We love each other as Jesus loved us in suffering and dying for us. We love in imitation of His love.

This kind of love is only made possible by the Spirit poured into our hearts at Baptism (see Romans 5:5), renewed in the sacrifice His priests offer in every Mass. By our love we glorify the Father. And by our love all peoples will know that we are His people, that He is our God.

-Dr. Scott Hahn

Prayer for our new Pope Leo XIV

Loving God, we pray today for our new Holy Father, Pope Leo XIV that he will carry on faithfully the mission entrusted to him. Give him courage, a love for the poor, compassion for all, and a voice for peace throughout the world.

Send your Holy Spirit upon him to accompany him and strengthen him for the work that lies ahead. May that same Spirit give him the gifts of wisdom, understanding, right judgement, and courage in all he undertakes for the good of the Church and the world.

May Pope Leo XIV strive to bring unity to your Church and to the world, be a builder of bridges, a true shepherd, and the face of a Samaritan Church; a Church that serves all especially the littlest and weakest among us.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen
